

Libby Leedom

St. Henry High School

As a 4-year varsity starter, Libby helped the Crusaders take this season's All A regional title. Entering her senior season, Libby had amassed an impressive 86 goals-33 assists (205 points). Last season, she accounted for 59 points (23 goals-13 assists), helping the Crusaders finish as district champs and 9th region runners-up. Libby was named Gatorade Kentucky Player of the Year, Kentucky All-State East Player of the Year, 1st team all-state for the 2nd time, MVP of the State All-A championships and NKY Player of the Year (Enquirer).

Libby helped the Crusaders capture the school's first-ever girls' Kentucky state soccer championship in 2010 (and was named the state tournament MVP) and helped the team achieve Kentucky All-A state titles in 2009 and 2011. A 4.0 student active in community service, Libby will join the University of Dayton soccer team next season. Her favorite athlete is Landon Donovan, favorite entertainer is Blake Shelton, favorite book is Night, favorite movie is Lincoln Lawyer and her "most-like-to-meet" is the Pope.

SPORT: Soccer

GRADUATING YEAR: 2013

GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT:

Gatorade Player of the Year

BIRTHDATE: 12/28/94

HEIGHT: 5' 8"

RESIDENCE: Florence, KY

PARENTS: Chris & Dawn

BIGGEST INFLUENCE:

"My dad"

FUTURE GOAL:

Become a doctor

"For all the reasons Libby stands out on the field, it is her tremendous work ethic that got her there. She just doesn't have an off switch, and is at her best when the team needs it the most."

- Steve Lorenz, Soccer Coach